

Creating...

- Designing and making pyramids.
- Making Egyptian masks
- Models of the River Nile.
- Water clocks.
- Mummies.
- Egyptian Headdresses.

Getting physical....

~ PE on Thursday afternoons

Targeting . . .

- Maths ~ fractions and decimals, measures, geometry, statistics, all 4 operations.
- Reading ~ using inference and deduction to answer questions.
- Writing ~ writing grammatically accurate sentences writing instructions and persuasive texts.
- Grammar ~ bullet points, semi colons, colons and dashes expanded noun phrases relative clauses.
- Spelling ~ learning more complex and tricky spelling patterns.

Asking some key questions . . .

- Who was Tutankhamun?
- What are Hieroglyphics?
- What was it like to live in Ancient Egypt?
- How can we persuade people to visit our school?
- What makes a successful author?

How Do We Attract More Visitors to Our School?

Finding out about...

- ❖ The geography of the UK and Egypt
- ❖ Early civilisations and their technology
- ❖ How to publish successful writing
- ❖ Putting on a performance
- ❖ How the pyramids were built
- ❖ Persuasive texts

How can you help?

- ❖ Reading every day.
- ❖ Learning lines and songs for our performance.
- ❖ Complete home learning tasks.

Investigating . . .

Forces and Materials

- Air resistance
- Friction
- Properties of Materials
- Insulators and conductors
- Soluble and insoluble materials
- Separating materials

Inspired by . . . The Egyptians

Special Events . . .

- Class Photo 23.4.18
- Parents Evenings 24-26.4.18
- May Bank Holiday: 7.5.18
- End of term 5: 25.5.18
- Start of term 6: 4.6.18
- Residential 21/22.6.18
- Sports day - TBC
- Summer Fayre: 6.7.18
- Disco 18.7.18
- Class swap day: 19.7.18
- Last day of term: 20.7.18