In English:
- Reading traditional tales – in particular the Three Billy Goats Gruff.
- Creating our own traditional tale following the same structure.
- Rewrite the story from the point of view of the troll.
- Write a recipe for a Trolls' meal and dessert to go into our class cookbook.
- Oral story telling
- Create a poster to stay safe on roads
- Instruction text on how to use rods safely.

Hook: The three Billy Goats Gruff really want to get to the delicious, green grass on the other side of the bridge. However, a ferocious troll, who lives under the bridge, enjoys feasting on tasty goats! How can the three goats cross the bridge without waking him?

Integrated Curriculum:
Decide the best way to cross the bridge without making a sound. What resources will we need? What is soundproofing? What can we make?
DT – Can we design and create a way of sound proofing the goat's hooves?
Create a meal for a 'troll'
Science – How does sound travel? What is soundproofing and can we use it to solve the dilemma?
