Dear Parent/Carer

We have booked for Year 4, 5 and 6 to attend 'The Children's Bookshow' at the Theatre Royal on Wednesday 22nd November. The show will feature author and illustrator Horatio Clare and Jane Matthews who will share how they create their books, what inspires them and tips for becoming successful writers and illustrators. It promises to be an engaging event and will provide lots of inspiration for writing activities back at school.

The cost of the Bookshow is £5 per pupil, which can be paid by logging in to our new 'ParentPay' system. If you have any queries about this, please see Mrs Swabey in the office.

The children will walk to the Theatre Royal for the morning and will be back to school in time for their usual lunch time.

Children will need to wear school uniform as normal and will need a waterproof coat.
